

SUSTAINABLE SEPTEMBER

Simplify your life and live more sustainably

Great workshops and events on offer throughout September. Help us launch our new Grove Library & Community Centre, WA's first public building with

Story Time and Play: 10:30am, Tuesday 7th, 14th, 21st, 28th Sept

We read an exciting tale together and have lots of fun with an activity themed on whales, oceans, trees and water. FREE at the Library

EVENING Story Time and Play: 6:30pm, Thursday 23rd Sept

A special evening Story Time and Play session. Bring PJs! FREE at the Library

Wholefood Cooking with Jude Blereau: 1pm Saturday 11th Sept

Natural Foods Chef Jude Blereau, author of 'Wholefood... Heal, Nourish, Delight' and 'Wholefood for the Family' will demonstrate cooking with organic and seasonal ingredients. Tastings included. FREE at the Community Centre

Nanna Technology

Preserving: 10am Friday 17th Sept

Amy Warne guides the way on preserving with tastings included. FREE at the Library

Sustainable Clothing Choices, 6pm Thursday 30th Sept

Be Absolutely Ecofabulous! Come along to an evening of laughter and learning about sustainable clothing options with Lesley Thomas. Bring up to five items of clean, smart clothes, shoes or handbags to Swish (exchange). FREE at the Library & nibbles provided

Chook Keeping: 3pm Saturday 25th Sept

Helen Hocking gives tips and tricks to keeping healthy and happy chooks. Chooks on display! FREE at the Library

Composting 'Masterchef' Style: 1:30pm Saturday 25th

Earthcarers from WMRC show us how to create rich and nutritious compost for your garden. FREE at the Library.

Age of Stupid Major Movie Event: 7:30pm Wed 22nd Sept Community Centre

Pete Postlethwaite stars as an archivist in the devastated world of the future, asking "why didn't we stop climate change when we still had the chance?" Gold coin donation with proceeds going to Conservation Council of WA.

Bookings are essential.
To book your place phone 9286 8686 or email
library@thegrovelibrary.com
For more details visit www.thegrovelibrary.com

THE grove
PRECINCT

